ANNEXURE-I

Variation in Price:

Payment due to variation in prices of Materials (Steel & Cement) after receipt of Tender

If after submission of the tender, the price of material specified in schedule F (mentioned below) increases/decreases beyond the prices prevailing at the time of last stipulated date for receipt of tenders (including extensions if any) for the work, then the amount of the contract shall accordingly be varied and provided further that any such variations shall be effected for stipulated period of contract including the justified extended period.

However for work done/during the justified period extended as above, it will be limited to indices prevailing at the time of stipulated date of completion or as prevailing for the period under consideration, whichever is less.

The increase/decrease in prices shall be determined by the All India Wholesale Price indices for Materials as published by Economic Advisor to Government of India, Ministry of Commerce and industry and base price as per scheduled F (Mentioned below)

The amount of the contract shall accordingly be varied for cement/or steel reinforcement bars and will be worked out as per the formula given below:-

Adjustment for component of individual material:

$$V = P \times Q \times \frac{CI - Clo}{Clo}$$

Where,

V = Variation in Material (cement and /or steel) cost i.e. increase or decrease in the amount in rupees to be paid or recovered

P = Base Price of material cost as per scheduled F (Mentioned Below).

Q = Quantity of material used in the works since previous bill.

Clo= All India whole sale price index for the material as published by the Economy advisor to Government of India, ministry of Industry and commerce as valid on the stipulated date of receipt of tenders including extension if any.

CI= All India wholesale price Index for Material for period under consideration as published by Economic Advisor to Government of India, Ministry of Industry and commerce.

(In respect of the justified period extended), the index prevailing at the time of stipulated date of completion or the prevailing index of the project under consideration, whichever is less shall be considered.
